“ I am very sorry for your loss. Did you know that there is hope for the dead? Our loving God tells us in the Bible that most people who have died will be resurrected. I would like to leave you with a couple of scriptures to read. (John 5:28,29) (Psalm 37:29). In your spare time i encourage you to read.

“ My condolences on your loss of Theresa,
The pain of losing a loved one can be overwhelming,
Our heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces' Isaiah 25:8.
What a wonderful future hope that is.
There is much Bible based comfort to be found on the website www.jw.org

“ Theresa had such a big heart which is pretty easy to understand if you know her family. She left this earth surrounded with LOVE and will be missed by so many. Her laughter was musical, it's what I will remember most about her. I will always think of her when I go to 'Cafe Franchesco'. My heart goes out to her family and especially her children and grandchildren. "Earth has no sorrow that heaven can not heal". Wishing the Raymo family strength and peace. xo

“ not only have I had the priveledge of knowing Theresa and all the Raymo's since the age of 4 but I also went to school with her youngest daughter, Rhonda and am the niece of Cathy (Raymo)Burnham and Dave. I have many memories of the raymo cottage, going with my aunt to Mr. and Mrs. Raymo's house in warren, seeing theresa, ellen, judy and mary ann. Theresa was always such a beautiful person and always the first to give you a hug and ask how you were doing. Her kindness, love and good nature will be missed but live on in the hearts of her siblings. May god give you peace and wrap his arms around you.

“ I knew Theresa as "Mary." I worked with her for many years at UM hospital. She was one of the most amazing women I have ever met. We were able to get to know each other well through our many Monday morning treatment sessions. She talked often of her family, kids, and especially of her grandchildren. I know she loved and worried about all of them so much. She knew I was praying for her, and she prayed for me and my family. I will continue to pray for all of you during this difficult time. Mary taught me to trust God more fully and not to have so many worries and doubts. I will always remember her courage, and valor as she fought her disease. I am honored to have called Mary my friend and I will never ever forget her. I pray that God grant you peace and comfort.

“ It was only a short while that I was blessed to be friends with Theresa. She had the kindest heart and put others needs before her own. Even as I was going through my cancer and chemo and felt like I couldn't deal with things, her smiley face was there to help. She sat for hours at a time with me. Like as if she were my big sister showing you how to do something because they have done it before. All of you like myself have been blessed by her presence. She was also very spiritually connected. One of her dreams before she left was that her kids came to know Christ that happened and it made her the happiest mother in the world. For now she knows that since she is with her Heavenly Father and in no more pain and fear she can be assured that she will see and be with all her family and friends in Christ in the future. God bless all of you connected to this beautiful person. May God grant you peace and serenity in your hearts during this difficult time.
