“ Dear Joe (Nancy, Maria and Noah), I am so sorry for the loss of your Grandmother. I loved hearing the stories from Nancy, of you going down to Detroit to visit her. I especially liked the stories of you visiting her on her birthday and attending mass with her. You truly are a wonderful family that must have had a great example in your Grandmother. May you all be comforted with knowing that you spent quality time with her while she was living. Peace be with you all. The Quinn and Reuter families are old-time O.L.O.G.C. parishioners. John and I want you to know you are in our prayers and offer you our deepest sympathy on the recent loss of your mother. To think she lived to be 100 and has such a wonderful, big family. You are indeed blessed.

Most Sincerely,

“ Dear Betty and Family,

We are deeply sorry to learn of your mothers' passing. Looking through yesterdays paper we saw her name. What a wonderful life and family she had! We know that you will miss her greatly, but will take solace in the knowledge that she is at peace with God. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you.

“ Sincere deep sympathy to the Reuter family, especially Betty, my friend for 35 years. I remember when Mrs. Reuter made long dresses for the Folk Group at Our Lady of Good Counsel because someone had said something about 'short skirts up on the altar'. She also made a small one for my 5 year old daughter Brenda that matched. We have never forgotten. Our prayers will continue for the whole family.##imported-begin##Marjorie Murray##imported-end##
