“ I worked with Tom and his Dad Arnold at the Gas Station on Cass and Groesbeck back in the early 60's they were the nicest guys I have ever met as I was younger than Tom by about 5 years they both took me under their wings and taught me the ropes of my job, I have never forgot their kindness and friendship...RIP my old Friend and please say Hi to Arnold for me.

“ So....I'm sitting here thinking, what can I say that could help the sorrow that everyone is feeling at this time...I came up with nothing. Then I started thinking about the old times that I had as a child in the 70's traveling up to Michigan during the summer to visit our Aunts, Uncles and cousin's of the Braga and Pilot families...boy I sure do miss those days, but no one can ever take those away. In my heart, Uncle Tom will always be there! To the Braga family, our sincere condolences. Jeff and Susan Brown
