“ When I think of Tom, I think of how sincere he was. He was kind and a true gentlemen. He took the time to stop and ask “truly” how you are doing. He loved his work and it showed in his years of service to the citizens of New Baltimore. ”

Those who leave us may be physically gone. They forever live in each of our hearts and minds. Keep Tom alive by sharing stories of him with others and how he touched your life. Remember he took the time to show up and care. In honor of Tom, do the same. Show you care and take the time with others and put that back into the world. RIP Tom, you will be greatly missed. 🙏💜 Many prayers to Sandy, his daughters, and the family ❤️
