“ the Sunday before the day you died will always be the worst day of my life .It was the day I had to decide to let you go It was the day you were put into Hospice To this day I cry on that Sunday. I know you tried your hardest to fight the Parkinson. You did a great job-- but eventually it won. My head tells me the decision i made was the right one but heart tells me other wise
Miss you to this day
love

“ Dad, I miss you so much. I don't have the words. You were an amazing dad, and even as time passes it doesn't get easier. I think about you every day. I miss you laughing, I miss you smiling, I miss your advice, I miss you. You were always my best friend, and you were always there for me. So much of who I am, is because of who you chose to be. I pray daily for one more day, even though I know it won't happen. I am so glad that God choose you to be my dad. I couldn't imagine having a better dad than you.

Love always,

Kevin

“ Hi grandpa Tom. It's Jordan, and after four years of you passing away I still cry and wish you were here right now. I love you so much. And I know you will not be reading this because you are in heaven, but I want to say from the middle of my heart, Thank You.

-Your grandson Jordan.

“ Pat and Family...
We are so sorry for your loss of a wonderful man. Many memories of you both that will be forever cherished. I'm sure Randy was there to greet his friend through the wonderful gates of Heaven~ (I bet Randy was looking to see if Tom had any peanut butter balls!)
Seriously, I just don't understand why the good ones have to suffer!
He had the biggest heart of anyone, God just needed another Angel.
May you ALL find comfort in the love and support of your family and friends that surround you, most importantly in GOD!
We love you.

“ Aunt Boots, Uncle Tom, Patty and all the family,

Angela and I want you express our deepest sympathies and are so sorry to hear about Tommy's (he will always be Tommy to me) passing.

When these things in life happen, it always takes me back to our younger days and all the wonderful times we shared and great memories they have left us with. Although some of those are of Tommy roughing up Brian and me (insert a huge smile here), they all are cherished. Thinking of Tommy, Brian, Jerome, Terry, Carol, Bobby, Cathy, Patty Tom Dick, Lorraine and all the rest, we were truly blessed to have those times.

Tom is in a much better place and sharing stories with his brother Brian. I can see them know like always and know we will all see them again.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you from way out here.

With much love and fond memories - Gary & Angela Schuler

Dear Pat,

We heard of Tom's passing and wanted to share our condolences with you and Kevin. Leo mentioned what a good guy Tom was and always a friendly neighbor and bowler. Take care and know his life was special in so many ways.
