“ Tom was someone who was always there to lend a hand. For years he was my husband Steve's mechanic. More than that he was a caring friend who even made house calls to pick up/drop off his vehicle for repair during the pandemic to protect Steve's health after kidney transplant. He shared stories about his boys and coaching baseball. Enjoyed listen to some tunes on Steve's new stereo equipment and even gave our neighbor advice about fixing a door that was about to fall off the hinges. That was our last visit, but shows how helpful a person he truly was. He even made sure to hook Steve up with someone trustworthy to look after our cars when he got his dream job. Our hearts go out to Jen, Evan, Nate and Tom's family.

“ Tom has been a pillar in our neighborhood since 2011. Quick to help and lend a hand, he has always been a generous soul. Tom showed an intense love for his wife and his boys. He enjoyed talking about how proud he is of his sons and their accomplishments. It has been a joy to know Tom as a friend. He will be deeply missed.

Jen, Evan and Nathan, our hearts are broken for you. Prayers for the hearts of all those who know Tom.
