“ From that skinny little kid to that big "lug" of a guy, Tom always had a positive comment and always shared his great laugh. Fast cars, fast boats and his big Dodge pick-up were always a good choice for conversation when you sat down with cousin Tom. I'll miss the Polish dinner night at Apple Annie's on Gratiot when I came to town. Thanks for the great memories, Tom.

“ Dear David and family,

I am so very sorry for the loss of your brother Tom. He was a good neighbor and he helped me out a few times without even being asked. Knowing that he is at peace now and with your parents in heaven is comforting. God bless you for all that you did for Tom, and blessings and peace to you and your family.

Regards,

Elaine Wois
