Papa i love you alot i have enjoyed the memories we shared together swimming for hours on end in the pool, and milk and oreo cookies after swimming sitting on your lap all the time when i was younger when i was a baby being sound asleep when you spilt a big jug of ice water on me lol. When you came to all my performances. All the times we went to the fair together and im really glad i could make your last days so wonderful you were my buddy through everything in life thank you for being here for me papa love you and miss you.

“ I feel so blessed to have met Uncle Timmy. He was always so kind to me and welcomed me with a big smile and hearty laugh. He was very proud of his family and a very kind man. Alan and I will always remember hours of playing Mexican train and listening to stories. God Bless you Uncle Timmy and thank you for treating me like part of the family! You are now pain free and rejoicing in heaven with vitality!
