“Tim, you gave me friendship that came from your heart. You saw the possible that sat hidden below the impossible and searched for ways to reach it, not only in the challenges of everyday life but in the lives of those that you shared a part of yourself with. I will forever be indebted to you for what you have taught me professionally but also, most importantly, what you taught me about compassion, integrity, loyalty, honor and humility.

To Tim's family and friends reading this may I say that my heart grieves with yours. I am reminded of a passage in James 4 that speaks of our today's and tomorrows and of the plans that we make in life

"yet you do not know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little time and then vanishes".. "IF the Lord wills, we will live and do this or that"

I am so grateful to you Tim for the time you chose to spend with me and invest in me while you were here with us. To my heavenly Father thank you for sharing such an amazing man with us. May the Lord comfort each of you as you grapple with such a personal loss.

“ My condolences to the family. Tim was a joy on the basketball court as well as off. I remember that set shot he had from near the top of the key. Good competitor and teammate. His presence will be missed.

“ He chose integrity over immorality, success over failure, kindness over hatred. These were a few of Tim's life choices. He reminds us to live life fully and deliberately. He may have been the victim of a random death but his deliberate life made him the victor. He has gone to join his mother and will live on in our hearts and memories.

“ It's fair to say that Tim had a direct influence on my IT career, but the real reason I respect Tim was his unique blend of intelligence, thoughtfulness, common sense, humor and empathy. Tim learned from everybody and shared his knowledge with anybody who wanted it. He was an amazing man and I admired him a lot.

I haven't seen him in years, didn't even know he was ill, but news of his death has affected me deeply and it's hard to imagine a world where he's no longer with us. I'm praying for spiritual comfort for all the people he left behind who loved him. God be with you.

“ We are all better for having known and worked with Tim. Tim had many passions, networking, coding, fantasy football, hoops. Tim's greatest passion was his family. We watched Tim as he showed us all how to be an exceptional son to his mother. As a husband, we learned of the incredible support he provided Deb. Tim proudly shared pictures of his daughter's infectious smile with us at Grid4. In many ways, Tim helped us find another gear that led us to where we are today. Thanks for sharing The Big Man with us.

“ Tim and I worked together only a short time directly, but indirectly, his influence was ever-present. I can't think of anyone in my career that had such an impact on my goals and objectives professionally. As a person, I always knew he would be as fair and impartial as possible, even when I didn't know what considerations he may have been obligated to personally. He always took care of the people who he considered friends and family.

May God bless and keep you and your family through this transition.

“ Tim Tim (as I called him) was a "gentle"man who I had the pleasure to work with and call my friend! It's been a few years since I saw him, but Tim Tim is someone who will always hold a special place in my heart and memory!

“ I will always remember Tim as one of the kindest people I've known. Never once, do I remember Tim saying a bad thing about anyone. He was patient, a caring listener with sound advise and seemed to greet life with a great sense of humor. We have truly lost one of the good ones.

“ Tim/BossMan was smart, honest, kind, fair, humble, and had many other great qualities which I will always remember him by. BossMan challenged me to be a better person personally/professionally, and I will always use his positive lessons.

I had the pleasure to play basketball with BossMan, I woke up around 5:00AM to go play ball with Tim and his buddies thinking I was going to show BossMan my game, but ended up getting schooled by him skillfully/gracefully making 3 point shots, jump shots, layups, and other cool moves. I look forward to one day cross paths with you again in a better place to do it all over again..:)

“ Tim we started at Ideal 20 years ago this September. Through all the stuff we did you made it fun. You always took time out of your day to see how I was doing and where you could help. I am so glad we stayed friends and kept the Fantasy Football team together. I don't really know much about football players and their stats and you always gave me a hand if I asked for one. I love how you would put together your recaps after week's game. I am so glad I got to visit you in the hospital. Your positive outlook made me very proud to know you and call you friend. Your contagious laugh and smile will be greatly missed.

“ I will always remember Tim's smile and his soft spoken voice. I have worked for Tim at two different Telecommunications companies and will always remember him as very caring, fair and always pleasant to talk with. I will never forget him and pray for his family whom he loved so much!

“ Timmy was an awesome man in my world! We hooped over the years...and I saw him conquer many hurdles. I will miss his turn-around, baseline hook shot...as He pushes me out of the way with his rear end! So sorry and sad for all of us who've lost a man of integrity, grit, and passion. With love, Tilly

“ Tim, you bore more burdens than any young child/man should have had to endure and you did it with admirable strength and compassion. I am comforted that you had the dearest and best wife and child to give you happiness and peace in your final moments on this earth. I know you and your mom will watch over us all, but my heart is broken. Love to all - Aunt Mary & Uncle Randy
