“ It has been many years since I have known Tim. I remember his as a wonderful and happy boy in his early teens. I'm so glad to have known him and his family. They are a part of my life I will never forget. With great regret we wish him goodbye and rejoice his next journey with our beloved Lord. May he forever rest in peace with the ones who have gone before him. I pray for his family and offer any help I can to help them with his passing. God bless him.###imported-begin###Scott J. “ Dee, Jon, Andrew and all the Rautio Family,

We want to say how sad we are for the loss of Tim. We always enjoyed seeing him when we made our visits to Michigan and he always had a good story to tell. This last trip for my Dad's funeral he let Ted borrow his bicycle so he could bike around town. We really appreciated him and will miss him. Our love and support will always be here for you.
