“ I was not only your Aunt, but I also had the privilege of being your God mother. We were there at the beginning. We watched you grow into a beautiful young woman. We watched you graduate, get married and become a wonderful and loving mother. I remember you decorating both Scott and Dawn's cars for their graduation. You were a very talented person, too. Even after you became ill, you were so brave and you fought to conquer til the end. RIP I love you! Aunt Mecki

“ Dear Don, Kay, & Family
I am so sorry for your loss. It is so hard to have a beautiful, young woman in the prime of her life lose her fight. May The Lord comfort you in your time of sorrow.

“ What a joy it was watching Tracey grow up from her 1st birthday through graduation, wedding, and Maggie's birth. I will always remember our camping days and get-togethers and all her artistic endeavors. Tracey enjoyed life and gave it everything she had and was the most courageous young lady that I ever knew. She will live on through Maggie and Paul and I'm sure she is praying for strength, courage and love to guide them through these difficult times. I'm sure her heart also goes out to her best friend Heather who just happens to be her sister, and to Kay and Don, parents, that should never have to loose their child this early in life. All of you will be in my prayers as I wish for words and thoughts to comfort you.

Love,
Aunt Shirl

“ Tracey & I met online about fourteen years ago. We became very close through years of emails and later following each other on facebook. When I got married in April 2004 she organized our group of email friends to throw me a "virtual" wedding shower, and they all chipped in to send me a lovely gift. She also made me an absolutely gorgeous wedding memories box, which I see every day, as it sits on a shelf in my home office.

Her smile was brilliant and she was such a warm, sweet friend. I've watched Maggie grow up on facebook, and it has long been a dream of mine to meet Tracey in person. I'm so sad we never got that chance, but our mutual love of lattes and the tv show Gilmore Girls will help me remember her always, as will the ornament she made me for my tree and, of course, the wedding memories box.

She was incredibly generous, and she shared her artistic talent with so many of her friends and loved ones. I will miss her dearly. She was very loved, not just by me, but by so many. My heart breaks for all of us who knew and loved her, and especially for those closest to her.

Tracey will forever be in my thoughts, and so will her daughter and husband.
