

Vera Barjaktarovich

August 4, 1937 - November 14, 2022

Vera Barjaktarovich, age 85 of Chesterfield Twp passed away on November 14, 2022. Vera was born on August 4, 1937 in Detroit, Michigan to Kozni and Anna Romanick. Vera was the strongest, loudest, most gentle soul who has left her mark for generations to come. She loved spending time with her kids and grandkids, watching their sporting events and school activities, making mac and cheese and chicken nuggets for lunch and pancake Wednesday was always a special day. She loved reading the Bible, mysteries, true crime and historical fiction and never backed away from a good debate – especially politics. Her pets Luci, Sami and Poochie were dear to her, and she is finally reunited with her precious Luci. She also enjoyed playing Canasta with her grandson who lovingly referred to her as the Queen of Canasta. If you stopped by her house any time of the day you could enjoy a coffee and an episode of Chicago PD or any of the many Law & Order shows.

Thank you, mom, grandma, great grandma and friend, for your unending love, laughter and tears – now go make some noise in Heaven.

Beloved wife of the late Stephen. Dear mother of Steve (Cindy), Mike (Julie), Jim (Lisa), Teri (Mark) Manteuffel, Julie (Mario) Yamarino, Mary Ann (Gary) Zak and Patti (Charlie) Freese. Loving grandmother of Steve (Alison), Nick (Arda), Kolten, Mario (Miranda), Jessica (Spencer), Kody, Hunter, Mary Ann, John, Carley, Luke, Charlie and Katie and great-grandmother of Piper, Kadence, Tessa, Willow, Nikolai, Leo and the future Oliver and Levi as well as many others who lovingly called her grandma.
