Tribute Wall

“ We will always remember you Aunt Vera.

We will always remember that Helen and I share the same wedding date as you and Uncle Duke.

We will remember how we looked forward the many joyful Christmas visits to see our Aunt Vera, which became an annual tradition. You always welcomed us with a smile, made us laugh, shared each other's memories, took the annual picture and of course had the usual pizza. We will never forget how we always played Yahtzee, your favorite game. We remember how you loved to talk to Bill and Carrie and would then exclaim ...OuuuUUUUuuuu.

We remember how strong you became when you needed to care for Uncle Duke, how you learned to drive again, how you worked out a route to drive for groceries or to charge your car battery (because you didn't drive enough) making only right hand turns through Mt. Clemens. We called that the Aunt Vera driving cycle.

We remember the many things you gave us as you were cleaning out your "office". Especially Uncle Duke's painting of Indian woman by the stream, which made us think of the Grand Canyon.

We remember how in your later years you said that you were working on 100. Well, you made it to 92 percent of that and that's not bad. In our minds, you will always be 100 percent.

May God bless you in Heaven.##imported-begin##Fritz and Helen Wagner##imported-end##
