“ My precious friendship with Vera goes back to our early childhood days when we were ballet students at the Armand School of Dance and Drama. We attended classes once a week and so our friendship grew. There were four of us girls who danced together. Gloria was English, Rosemary was Italian, Vera was Russian and I was Polish. What a team we made. Vera's birthday was the same as mine, July 13th, so we always sent cards and notes to keep up on what was going on in our lives. My three daughters and I visited Vera and David at their home and got to know their two sons, David finally taking our daughter, Karen, to her Junior Prom. Through the years we corresponded and learned about each others lives, eventually all the aches and pains that came with age. I can still hear Vera's tinkling voice, rising in laughter and how she squinted her eyes. I will miss my dear friend and all those notes that passed between us through the years. I'm sorry I wasn't able to attend the Memorial Service but the bad weather as well as the distance didn't make that possible. Rest in Peace my dear Vera!
