“ Memory Eternal, Dearest Vince.

Belinda and I worked at VW for years and our families became friends. When my daughter Elizabeth was little Vince and Belinda would invite us over for pizza, so Elizabeth could swim in the pool. I fondly remember Vince calling Belinda at work and asking which cookies did Elizabeth like, now, so he could go and buy her a bag of cookies. He told her they were all for her unless she wanted to share. What a kind man Vince was. We love you Vince and will forever keep you in our prayers. Love you too, my dear friend Belinda. We are always here for you.

“ I am so saddened to hear the news that another Norma Street father has passed away. Chris your father always welcomed me into your home. I remember him taking me to a Tiger's game in our youth. Such wonderful memories of him from our childhood. Chris my condolences to you Tina, Jill, your mother and his grandchildren.
