“ I met Vince through my dad Jerry Hayes at Stahls museum on a visit years ago. Vince was one of the funniest and kindest man I have ever had the pleasure to know. Was so thrilled when he came to a barbershop show my Chapter put on at St. Mary's during the Christmas season. He loved it and was so supportive! I like so many will miss him dearly. My deepest sympathies to the families and friends in his life. 🙏

“ Vince was a kind and lifelong friend of my Dad, Bob LaPorte, going back to days at Consumers Power. He would often remind Dad that Vince was younger even if by only a couple of months. Although not in good health himself he came to Dad's visitation a couple of years ago. We so appreciated his support and concern for our family. God bless you our dear friend and faithful servant. “ I had the distinct pleasure of meeting Vince and getting to know Vince through my sister Diane Piazzon. Vince was a great guy. He was always concerned about Diane and asking how she was doing. Diane is in a nursing home and struggling with her health. Vince would visit her and always showed love and genuinely cared about Diane. My sister thought the world of Vince and loved him very much. When I told Diane of Vince's passing, she became very emotional and if she could be there to pay her last respects to Vince she would. But, unfortunately that's not possible, so I am writing this in honor of Vince. You will be always remembered. RIP my friend.

“ Family of Vince, I want to extend my condolences to you and say I am very sorry to hear of the passing of Vince. I recently lost my wife and I know Vince is up there sharing the stories with Nancy. Vince was a great guy and he knew a little bit about cars, When we purchased our Model A Vince saw us a church and checked the car over and introduced us to the EastSide A 's The stories and knowledge Vince had was never ending. Vince knew Nancy as well as he knew me, they got along really well. Vince will be kept in my prayers. Dick Tracy

“ Hello family and friends surviving Uncle Vince's passing. It's a great saying that says "It takes a village to raise a child." Uncle Vince and for that matter all his sibs did that for me. I fortunately for my part mailed him a letter some 35 years ago telling him so. Let's remind each other at this time to be that "village" I know that's what they would expect and hope for. God grant Uncle Vince eternal salvation. Time for us to carry the torch.
