“ When i was young, before i was old enough attend school, my mom asked me what i wanted to be when i grew up. I told her a doctor because i wanted to help people. Couple years later she asked me again, this time i said a social worker, i wanted to help children. My junior year of high school she asked me once more, and i said a teacher, because if i could impact just one students life the way a teacher had done for Me, i would have been happy with that. My mom wasnt a doctor, social worker, or a teacher but she impacted so many lives. More people then I've had to chance to know. I think that takes a special person. She raised several children, basically Alone. I don't know many people who are strong enough to do that. That can sacrifice everything she had to. As a new parent, I'm just starting to realize all that it takes. We, her children, have all taken her for granted at some point. All children do, i think. She was strong, bullheaded, cynical, stubborn, intelligent, passionate, she was so much like me it actually.....helps me find comfort. she was my mom.....Just find myself thinking of you today mom. May you rest in paradise.....

Violet Cook, dearest beloved daughter to Bob and Doreen Pierce, sister to Joe, the late Sandra, Cindy and Patty (RJ). Mother to Gary, Gregory, Taylor, Ashley, Christopher, Wayne and Vincent. Grandmother to Kristopher, Aubrianna, Gary, Autumn, McKalya, Joshua, Leann, Katana, Madison and future kin. Aunt to Lindsay, the late Becky, Michelle, Malisa, Kenneth, Robbie Jr, Brian, Eric and Nicole. Cousin, Great Aunt and Niece to many. Dear friend to Judi and many more. Mother was born November 30, 1960. She attended Southlake High School among the class of 1979. She obtained certification in patient care and studied at Macomb. She was a group home manager specializing in geriatrics and helping the mentally handicapped through the 80s and 90s before retiring from the workforce secondary to health problems. Mother was a heart patient, sustaining open heart surgery with multiple bypasses, depressed and in pain, she endured a fight for years to come.

Beauty complimented Violet and her spirit. She was a great mother, organizer, excellent at cooking, enjoyed sewing, fine arts in particular pottery, scrapbooking and country music. She loved her children and grandchildren.

We are limited in duration. We are gifted with free will, our individuality and our spirits. At times, we may error and seek consequence from those that impose but rarely do we embrace and forgive. I learned compassion and forgiveness from my Mother. She gave me a profound meaning that it is more valuable to love and nourish. We shall flourish therefrom.

There are endless memories that we shall embrace. Her legacy shall thrive forever in our hearts. May we all be blessed with Violet's spirit. Violet is pleased that you are here and she will reside in Heaven to watch over you until your day of arrival. In her final moments with us, her youngest son, Vincent was by her side. She was swiftly taken on Tuesday, April 21, 2015 at 8:38pm when she was christened to an Angel by the Lord. Amen.

*Beautiful Gary.....she will be missed and is already.
Her memories with me will live in my heart forever.
God Bless You....she would be proud of how you did so well for her. x*

I wish you would have spoken from your heart instead of just stating facts about her life. ^I have a voicemail from mom saying she couldn't stand judi a week before she died. She keeps acting like they were so close its not true.

Ashley Kreft - May 01, 2015 at 09:34 AM

I know you are enjoying time with Penny in Heaven. Gosh, we'd just spoken not a week before. I wish you would have stayed. Still remember all the giggling we will see you again dear friend. xoxo

It's sad that my own brother forgot to put all my kids on here just goes to show who he really is. And if anyone donated anything. To help our mom have her wishes filled by having vinni taken care of. "Gary" has kept all the moneys and did not pay a dime towards moms cremation. Myself and vinni did with the help of Nana. Great job Gary way to show what the oldest should do. You have no clue what mom was you came in like capt rimjob and tryed to be someone in the end. What a joke mom is vary disappointed in you

*“ I (Tim Waldrep) we met in 7th grad. South Lake Jr. High. we were frinds to each and she was always kind to me. I 9th grade we were in teh same class. There was a guy who made a smart remark about my cleft pallet/hair lip. Miss Violet walked over to him while class was still in session and slapped the holy hell out of him. While walking back to her seat she winked at me. I was so proud of her for protecting the underdog. I remember that and shall not ever forget. I lost my father this past Januray .she sent me a privet message that touched in and I teared-up. I pray she see my father up ther. My dad was such a class act and he will thank her for he's son.

“ Violet we were definitely closer when we were younger & I Love you cousin dear as I love all of my family.. You told me how much you adored my dad as he would take you to some of my brothers baseball games with all of us...I wish we could have had more time together as we were starting to get close again when you moved back this way from Up North..Even though we didn't get together often you were my cousin & we had such a bond that couldn't be broken..I will TRULY MISS you with all my heart..I will be here if any of your children/my second cousins need anyone to talk to or want any family tree information..I remember how happy you were when I sent you a lot of family pics & the tree information that Vinnie probably will find in all your stuff...As my mother was an only child I thank God everyday that my mother instilled such closeness with my four brothers & myself..My baby brother has passed & I miss him everyday..I have had many differences with my three remaining brothers but we get over all of them & remain very close as my mother raised us to be..Violet I know you would want all your children to remain close also..I will pray & hope that all your children & grandchildren will remain as close as possible..Life is too short to hold grudges & God tells us to love all people..Forgiveness is divine & i know this to be true..Your children now have you as their Guardian Angel & they have the memories to hold onto..May God Bless all your children & grandchildren & comfort & guide them

“ Your my mother, to pick just one memory is insane. You raised me most of my life. We spent the first 16 years together That's so much laughter,tears, anger, happiness, and memories to pick just one is overwhelming. I wish we could have made amends, i wish i could have told you just how much i love you one last time. I wish you could have met my youngest daughter and played a bigger role in my toddlers life. With all the hardships aside i respected you so much for raising five kids on your own. I don't know any one else who could endure that, who could sacrifice and give all that you had to for as long as you had to, make sure we were okay. You were a passionate person. I think we all took you for granted at some point all children do that to their parents i think. I'm going to miss calling you for recipes and just being able to talk to you about anything. I hope you know, i Will do everything i can to help my brothers through this. I hope you look down on me from time to time. I hope i make you proud and fulfill all the wishes you had for me. I love you so much, saying I'm sorry for everything now isn't enough. But I'm so so sorry. For everything. Thank you for everything you've done for me. May you rest in paradise, until we meet again.....just know your always on my mind and in my heart.

“ Well there are so many memories I have had with my mom I have no favorites. I will miss our talks and card games along with yatzee .. We have been threw a lot together but we will always be forever grateful of how she raised us . I will miss you always and think of you often . I will raise these kids to the best of NY ability in hopes you will be proud of me and them.I love you mom and am truly sorry for everything that I have done . may you rest in peace and watch over my kids as well as my brothers and sister we will be looking for answers from time to time any sign you can give will be grateful hold a spot up there for me till I see you soon. Then we can play games again and have our talks.. Now I'm gunna look pretty goofy talking to the sky looking for advice but I know your gunna be listening. I love you mom until next time we see each otherRIP
