“ I love this photo of my dear Aunt Virginia. It is exactly how I visualize her when I think about her. She loved to laugh. I hope they have good walking shoes in heaven - she loved taking daily walks, and is, I think, eager to explore the celestial walking paths now accessible to her. Others there will have to work hard to keep up with her! I will hold you in my heart, Virginia.##imported-begin##Deb Perry##imported-end##

“ I have such great memories of Virginia; she loved to cook and would always tell me what she made for dinner when I talked to her on the phone. She introduced me to Sanders ice cream puffs with hot fudge at a very young age (and I have been hooked ever since)! I remember spending time at Grandma's house and Virginia would take me "on Compeau" shopping. I had to practically run to keep up with her. She could never do enough for you, but would not allow you to do anything for her in return. Christmas was a magical time for us Ledwidge girls when we would open our gift from Virginia, which was always a beautiful dress from New York. Elinor, Virginia and Lu always made me feel special when we visited; they were genuinely interested in my school work, jobs, and just me in general. I regret being distanced from them these past 30 years because they were such a positive influence in my life. Virginia used to call me "Dinah", so that is how I will sign off. May she be at peace in God's care now. Dinah and Steve Luther##imported-begin##Dianne Luther##imported-end##

“ I am proud to be the nephew of a very strong willed indepentent lady that never complained. Virginia always made sacrifices so she could be generous with others.
