

Virginia Struble

November 2, 1941 - February 20, 2026

Virginia Lee Struble died peacefully on February 20, 2026, at the age of 84. She was born to the late Stanley and Elizabeth (Zumbach) Jeczmonka on November 2, 1941, in Bay City, Michigan.

In 1961, Virginia married the love of her life, Richard Harold Struble. They shared forty years of marriage before his passing in 2001. Virginia is survived by four children: Richard Struble II, Rock Struble, Jeffrey (Annette) Struble, and Jennifer Noble; and seven grandchildren: Richard (Lyndsey) Struble III, Keith Struble, Emily (Christopher) Powell, Shelby (Bradley) Orlando, Juliet Struble, Blaine Borchardt, and Sophia Noble. She was preceded in death by her brother, Dale Jeczmonka, and her two beloved sons, Scott and Mark Struble.

Virginia found joy in life's simple pleasures—shopping, animal print fashion and decor, and sweet treats. In her younger years, she enjoyed ice skating and dancing. Above all, her greatest pride and happiness came from raising her six children and spoiling her grandchildren.

She was humble yet sharp-witted, often winning card games without even looking at her hand. Her boisterous, infectious laugh could fill a room and lift the spirits of everyone around her. Until her final days, Virginia carried herself with quiet strength and timeless beauty, with her kind heart shining just as brightly.

She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who knew her. Her family takes comfort knowing she has been joyfully reunited in Heaven with her beloved husband, Richard, after twenty-four years apart, and with their sons, Scott and Mark.
