“ We will always remember Ginny as "the sweet Virginia".
It was ironic when we married into the family that we ended up living just around the corner from Virginia and Ken in our and their first homes.
She is safe in God's arms forever more.

“ Our staff and members will cherish very fond memories of Virginia over the years. Her smile would light up a room, her personality made her a friend to all, and her love of family and life were well known to all who were lucky enough to call her a friend. We send our heartfelt condolences to Pam and family. Pam - your devotion to your parents was a lesson in grace and humility for us all. Sending much love and prayers for comfort.

Virginia and Ken were very dear friends. We went to the Senior Center partys and trips. Went to the Macomb Intermediate School District programs and to each other's churches for their special programs. She always had a smile and we had a lot of fun together. She will be missed. Blessings to Pam and family. Barbara and Willie Ferreras

“ *A recent visit with the Florida Orchestra.
Virginia enjoyed the concert. It was so nice to enjoy this time with Pam and Larry and friends.
Fond memory.
