

Vivian Konwinski

April 14, 1924 - September 26, 2011

Vivian Konwinski of Roseville, passed away on September 26, 2011 at the age of 87. She was born April 14, 1924 in Detroit, Michigan.

Vivian was a longtime member of Assumption Grotto Church and the Ladies Sodality. She enjoyed being a part of the Grotto Bells and later the Grotto Seniors. She also participated in the Alter Society cleaning the church with all her good friends.

Vivian was a longstanding member of Polish Women's Alliance and Polish National Alliance serving as their secretary for many years.

Vivian and her husband, Edward enjoyed 64 years together. Her children were her life as was her Faith. Any free time she had was spent taking care of someone else or doing something for the church. She will be sorely missed by her family, friends and all who knew her.

Beloved wife of the late Edward. Dear mother of Peter, Paul (Leigh), Barbara (Albert) Mercier, Thomas (Diane), Phillip and Mary (Peter) Cavataio. Loving grandmother of Michele, Anjanette, Renese, Carissa, Blake, Craig, Stephen, Crystal and Douglas and great-grandmother of 9 great-grandchildren.

“ Sincere sympathy to Vivian's family. I have hired Phil, her son, repeatedly for home repair work, and he would be concerned for his mom's health problems. I am sure that she appreciated any help from the family. Trust that she is in a better place now, Phil. Chris Ohlrich##imported-begin##Chris Ohlrich##imported-end##
