“ We had the chance to meet dear Vlatko at Dragana and Omer's wedding. He was such a warm, cheerful, and kind person. I will always remember how much fun we all had dancing together as a family.

I was deeply saddened to hear the news. My heartfelt condolences to his family and loved ones.

“ *My deepest condolences to the entire Spasevski family during this difficult time. Vlatko was a former band member of mine until I moved to NYC in 2003. He was not only a colleague and friend...he was also a big brother to each of us. The oldest of the crew...he was always there to make us laugh and enjoy every event we performed at together. May he continue to smile over his family from Heaven and may he live on in the wonderful memories we all keep close to our hearts.
Bog da ga prosti. 🙏*
