“ Thank you very much Mr. Skonieczny for bringing such a nice family to the world that I got to know during my visits in Detroit. I still treasure those memories close to heart even today.
My deepest sympathies to all of the family members (and Monica ... I also remeber up North, it sure was nice).

“ Dear Cousins: I just learned of your father's death. I was so moved to read what a significant impact he had on the lives of his children and grandchildren.

Though we often know that it is for the best when our suffering parent leaves this earth for his heavenly reward, it is nonetheless hard to let go. It is often made easier through cherished memories of special times. It appears the Skonieczny family has more than a few to look back on!

You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

Your cousin, Joyce##imported-begin##Joyce Shinsky##imported-end##

“ Dear "Detroit cousins,"
I'm sorry to hear that you have lost your dear Father. I can still remember your handsome Dad and dear Aunt Toni visiting Grandmom Shinsky with all you "kids." How we loved seeing all our cousins from Detroit. God has truly blessed us all...As we say here, "God must have loved the Shinsky's, that's why he made so many of them."
Sincerely, Diana (daughter of Robert Shinsky)###imported-begin###Diana Shinsky Bonvegna###imported-end###

“ Dear Grandpa,
Thank you for the wonderful memories that I treasure deeply and share with my children. Taking a ride on a fire truck, picking us up for school, coming over your house for homemade rootbeer, teaching me how to swim, timetables and for yelling at me for biting my nails and many more. When I read all of the other memories your grandchildren have written, it amazes me on how many different memories we all share and will cherish. We all have been blessed to have grandparents like you. I hope to one day leave my grandchildren with great memories.

Miss You and Love You

“ Gramps, I will always remember the time when we were up north, and you let me sit on your lap and steer the tractor while you cut the grass, and how you taught me my prayers and didn't stop till I had them down. Every time I pray before bed I always think of you. Everytime I saw you, your big blue eyes met mine with a big smile on your face that warmed my heart. I will never forget how you made me feel, and the way you always held my hands and warmed them for me. God blessed us with the best Grandpa there could be and we are all so lucky to have been loved by you. I hope you enjoy your next journey on, and get everything you deserve and more!! love you! ~Meagan~###imported-begin##Meagan Vander Linden###imported-end##

“ Grandpa I will miss you. I remember the good times up north going for walks and waiting for Monica to get off the school bus. The baseball and kickball games we all played. You would always go over math facts with Paula and I while we cleaned the dishes. Sorry I didn't spend more time with. I love you Grandpa.##imported-begin##Lisa Elmer##imported-end##

“ Grandpa,
Your journey is over, but what a journey it was. I cannot even imagine trying to summarize the impact you have had on my life not to mention the lives of all those you loved and loved you in return. Through your example, you have shown what true devotion to family and faith is, and by your example we shall continue. Even through your darkest journey, when the faces you loved began to become nameless, you persevered, never letting your sickness take away that last light from your eyes. We all knew you were still there, and deep down you knew we were too. So today Grandpa, I say thank you and farewell. You have worked hard and now you can rest. God Bless Gramps!
