

Walter F. Zelechowski

November 8, 1944 - February 28, 2009

Walter Francis Zelechowski was born November 8, 1944 in Hamtramck, Michigan.

Walter passed away February 28, 2009 after losing his battle with cancer at age 64. He was the only child of Walter & Clara (Krolikowski) Zelechowski. He leaves behind his loving wife Idalynne, his son Anthony and daughter Julie (Bruce) Mcglone and three grandchildren, Lindsay and Charlie Zelechowski and Christopher McGlone. Dear brother-in-law to Darrell (Nancy) Oglesby of White Pine, Carrie (Ray) Cook of Boyne City. Walter was a radio specialist in the US Army. He worked for the Chrysler Warren truck plant. He also worked for McDonald Tube as a quality assurance manager. After his retirement he loved going to the Country Boy restaurant for breakfast, he enjoyed the people there. He loved music, he fulfilled his dream of playing with a band "The Patty Tatro Band" a few times. They may not have been famous, but he was thrilled all the same. He will be greatly missed by family and friends. Peace be with you my love.

“ Ida, Tony and Julie, Our thoughts and prayers go out to the three of you. Wally was a gentleman, honest and truly a kind person. Working with Wally at MacDonald Tube was a great pleasure. He was a dedicated employee and respected by everyone. He certainly had a great sense of humor. He will be greatly missed but now he is at peace. “ I am sorry I did not become real close to walter, Ida but I would like to let you know you and your family are in my prayers. I am so sorry I could not be there for you Ida. You are in my heart in thought and prayer. As you said walter is now at peace. One thing I find comfort in is that there will be a reserection. We can see mom dad and our brothers and walter.
