“ My deepest sympathy to the Placido family. May you find comfort in the memories you shared together an in "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."(2cor.1:3,4) And who promises that soon sickness, death, & pain will be no more. (Isa 33:24; Rev 21:34) May these beautiful promises from the bible warm heart and brighten your day.

Sincerely,
Alicia Jones

“ I grew up with Nick in Detroit. I had so many great memories of him. Did not find out until yesterday night and was not able to pay my respects to his family. There are many of us that missed it but he will always live in our hearts. Prayers for the family at this very difficult time. God Bless. Kim Paluch-Moore

“ My Beautiful Brother "Friend" How will ever be the same without you here? There will always be a piece of me missing because your gone. My life will never be the same. You will be missed but not forgotten in my heart. The best uncle to my children, you were there for them and they will love and miss you forever. I miss you already my heart is broken without you here. God Bless you and hold you in his arms until we see each other again. Love you Always your little sister. Gina

“ Dear sweet cousin Nicky (: the boy I had a crush on growing up :). I don't feel the need to say "Rest In Peace" because you were greeted and reunited with some of the most wonderful people. I soo loved your dad and grandparents. I'm only sad because we never got that chance to get together one last time this year. My prayers will not only be for you but for your girls & family. Until we meet again.....

“ Dearest precious nephew Nickie, I can no longer see you in the flesh, but I know that you are still here in spirit. I need you, and the only consolation I have is that you and your father and grandfather are finally together again.

I love you with all my heart.
