Wanda was a very sweet and kind lady who enjoyed spending time with her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, and any other family members and friends she had the pleasure of visiting. Her hobbies included gardening, sewing, reading, doing crossword puzzles, and keeping up on current events. She was a seamstress and designed many of her own clothes growing up. She also had an appreciation for the arts and classical music. She loved nature and would identify the different types of birds that came up to her window and the animals that lived outside. She also wrote a children's book about a pine tree that grew in her yard.

Wanda will be dearly missed by all those who knew and loved her. She will be buried with Arthur at Great Lakes National Cemetery at a date TBD.
