“ Dearest Grandma,

You instilled in us family values and a strong connection to our heritage. May we honor you by continuing the traditions you have passed to us and through sharing memories and being there for one another.

Memories cooking with you, talking and laughing with you, and walking in your garden will be with me always. I will share everything I have in my heart for you and the ways in which you shaped my life and character with my son.

We love you, sweet Grandma, and words cannot express how much we will miss you.

*Love your granddaughter,

“ Grandma, I'm going to miss you more than words could ever say but I know you are with Babcia, surrounded by beautiful horses on a sprawling farm, with roses and tomatoes for as far as the eye can see. You were the best Grandma & Great Grandma anyone on this planet could ever have. I will think of you every single day for the rest of my life. I love you and I miss you.
XOXOXO Chell ♡

Thank you. She loved you and always told us that you were her favorite. It showed in every picture she took with you. So happy with a huge smile. You called her blue eyes. Thank you from all of us!

“ Diane-

My condolences to you, Jerry and the family. We both share in the loss of our mothers and we're both fortunate to have and to have had mother-in-law's who stepped into that role in many ways to help ease the pain of that loss. I hope you take comfort in reflecting on the time spent with your mother-in-law and cherish your memories. May her memory be for a blessing.

“ Back in 1957, my mom and dad bought their first home, on Panama St. in Warren, MI. The Rafalko family lived right next door, and Wanda was a wonderful, warm, lovable next door neighbor. She was very kind to me and my siblings while growing up next door, and my family lived there until 1988, when my mom and dad moved to Shelby Township after my dad retired. My deep condolences to her children, especially Carol, who I've reconnected with recently and who's become a dear friend. May God comfort you all in this time of sadness as you grieve this lovely lady, your mom. Sincerely, Barb (Zielinski) Bussell
