“ We cannot express our sadness when realizing that Lorraine is no longer with us. We were glad that we were able to see her in our recent visit to Michigan. While knowing how ill she was, even in her last days she was filled with more kindness and warmth and love than most people ever give or experience in an entire lifetime.

We were all blessed to have her with us and will remember her forever.

Our Love,

Mike and Virge##imported-begin##Michael and Virge Kargol##imported-end##

“ Passing of our family and friends is never easy to deal with. What we do have are the memories of the person, and with Aunt Lorraine we have so many. She was one of the most giving and caring persons' that we have ever known. She gave of her time to everyone who needed it and exerted so much love and energy in everything she did.

I wish I could have been in town at this sad time to extend my support to you, Aunt Florence, and to the rest of the family who are now missing her and thinking of others we have also lost. Arnie extends his sympathy and if either of us can help in any way with anything whatsoever, please, just call.

Love,

“ Always there for us.
Unselfish.
Never too tired.
Totally committed.

Love for everyone.
On the ball.
Remembers everything.
Rolls golabki.
And makes peirogis.
Indeed a friend.
Now you have life.
Ever after.

Rest In Peace.##imported-begin##Justine, Audrey, Casey, and “ Aunt Lorraine: You are loved by many and will be missed by many. The following is for everyone to read who will miss the lovely, kind Aunt Lorraine. Renée (Kargol) Gray.

“Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, we still are. Call me by my old familiar name; speak to me in the easy way, which you always used.

*Put no difference in your tone; wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Pray, smile, think of me, and pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was, let it be spoken without effect, without the trace of a shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner.
All is well.”*
