“ To Mrs. Stewart and family, I have been praying for you and will continue. Warren was a man that seen life and took it while other men live it . I shall forever remember his great smile and loud laughter, you always knew when he was in the room . I thank God for bringing him in my life. He will be missed. Alan Justice Pastor of People's community apost. church Detroit,Mi.

“ Sorry for your loss there is something I would like to share with you . About a promise that Jehovah our God . Has told us in regards to what grand things the future holds for us . Imagine a place wher there will be no more pain, crying , sarrow, death . This is the promise that our God has given us. According to his world the bible at Pasm:37:29 these things will be of the past.
