Jenn & Family,
My heart is with you as you grieve for your wonderful Father and Husband through this sorrowful time.
Bill,
I'm really very happy that you are with God in Heaven. I know that you are free of pain and you are surrounded with loved ones and ultimate joy. But, your family and friends are missing you very much.
We thank God for sharing you with us, but he took you back too soon. You gave everyone you knew a part of your goodness and love. I miss seeing your e-mails come through. I miss the lunches that you made so special. I miss our discussions on the Catholic Church. I saw how lovingly you took care of Jenny, which made me take a second look at my relationship with my daughters.
That's who you were, Bill. A teacher, a listener, and the best role model the world will ever know.
I will remember you and I will miss you the rest of my life.

Lovingly, Nath
