Tribute Wall

“ I'm very sorry to hear of Bill's passing.
Bill was my late brother, Mike Desmarais', close friend for many years. Their friendship began when we all lived in Saint Clair Shores and seamlessly carried on even after my family moved to New Baltimore. Distance never tested their friendship.
Bill was an amazing young man. He never once objected to Mike's little sister tagging along. The three of us enjoyed playing cards, canoeing, horse back riding, bowling and movies.
Bill and I lost touch over the years but I did see him several years back, at my Mother's funeral. He hadn't changed.
My sincerest condolences to Bill's family. He was a good man...

“ Bill (Wild Bill as we called him) will be missed dearly - he always brought a smile to our shop and loved to talk fishing. We will miss his friendly banter back and forth over his love of adding more electronics and gadgets to his boat and hearing of his fishing trials, and victories, pursuing Lake St. Clair's walleye and perch population.
Rest in Peace our friend -
