“ One of my favorite memories of Uncle Bill, was he was eating his ravioli and Jenny and myself wanted a bite. He pretended to be a monster and wouldn't share.! We laughed so hard!!! He was always cracking jokes and be funny! He was a very loving man and strong in his faith!! I love you Uncle Bill❤️

“ Uncle Billy was a great man. I remember the times he picked me up from home to take me to Grammys for the weekend to take care of her while my Aunt Elaine had to work. He would buy me dinner and then when he picked me up in the morning to take me back home he would stop and get doughnuts. Miss those days riding in the car and just talking. I love Uncle Billy and always will. 💕
