In his free time, he enjoyed spending time with family and friends while camping, fishing, tossing cornhole or playing Euchre. In the more recent years, he had a newfound love for singing and dancing. He was in his glory with each opportunity to get a microphone in his hand or cut a rug with a willing dance partner. This enjoyment introduced him to a cherished, large music community who embraced and loved him like family. He will be dearly missed by so many family and friends. He was predeceased by his wife Rose Mary, his parents, and sisters Donna, Sharon, and Beverly. He is survived by his children, his brother George and sister Karen. “ Dearest Dad,
I am really going to miss you!
I loved dancing with you, and listening to you sing. You were so full of love, and a kind, generous father.
You worked so hard to give your children a good life.
My heart is broken, and tears are streaming down my face.
Although I will smile, and laugh, thinking of all the beautiful memories that we made together.
I love you with every beat of my heart.
I know that you are out there in the sky singing, while mom is dancing.
Thank you for being my Pops Presley.
Until we meet again. 🥺❤️🥺
Love, Robin Gwen
