“ Dear Earline & Family,
I was saddened to see in the paper that your mother had passed away. I hadn't seen her since my wedding 34 years ago and mostly remember her from my childhood Christmas nights and Uncle Tim's house. My mother was Eugenia Bryant (Burnett) in case you aren't sure of the connection.
Even though I hadn't seen your mother, we exchanged Christmas cards every year. She always wrote a note and I did too. It didn't seem like Christmas unless I had gotten her card. She was one of the few connections I had left with my mother's family.
My deepest sympathy goes out to you & your family in the days ahead. No matter the circumstances or the fact that they had a good long life, losing a parent is still losing a parent and having lost both of mine I know what you're going through.
At least we are assured that they are in a better place where there is no pain and suffering and someday we will all be reunited.##imported-begin##Linda Brasseur##imported-end##

“ To the family of Willie Ruth Burnett:
So sorry for your loss. I wanted to share some information with you:
The Bible writer Paul offered hope of relief from the "last enemy," death.

"The last enemy to be abolished is death." (1Corinthians 15:26)

Why could Paul be so sure of that?

Because he had been taught by one who had been raised from the dead Jesus Christ. (Acts 9: 3-19)

God had promised to restore Paradise on this earth under the rule of His heavenly Kingdom in the hands of the now glorified Jesus Christ. (Genesis 2:7-9; Matthew 6:10; Luke 23:42,43) In that restored Paradise, the human family will have the prospect of enjoying life without end, free from all sickness and disease.
(Revelation 21:1-4)
