“ Aunt Wilma was my dads baby sister and she and Uncle Fred were my godparents. I was so blessed to have had them in my life. My father passed away in 1966 when he was only 42 yrs old and I was 18. I remember so well how they and my Uncle Bob and Aunt Willabelle drove non-stop from MI to CA to be there for my dads funeral. It meant so much to my mom to have my dads siblings at her side at such a difficult time. When I was planning my wedding to my husband Tony in 1971 I asked my Uncle Fred to give me away. He didn't hesitate to be a part of my special day and brought the whole family along. Over the years my aunt stayed in contact with birthday and Christmas cards and long letters that connected me to my MI family. She kept me posted on graduations and weddings and births of her beautiful grandchildren and great grandchildren. I so appreciated the time she took to make sure I felt a part of my dads family even though he had moved away from MI in the 1940's after serving in WWII. Aunt Wilma also told me stories of growing up with two brothers and gave me more information about my grandparents who lived so far away. She made sure I had some favorite recipes from her mother, Grandma Tenyer, after she passed away. My sister, Jackie, told me that she made our grandmas jam filled butter cookies this past Christmas so the tradition continues. I will truly miss my Aunt Wilma and treasure the time we had together. Much love to the Hamann and Sorrentino families. You are in thoughts and prayers today.

“ Wilma and Fred were part of our lives as early as I can remember! She and our Mom were very dear friends from their youth in Fair Haven. I took Mom in later years to their monthly luncheon, always had such a nice time. I agree with my sister, the gang is together again. Rest in peace, Wilm. So sad for the family.

“ Wilma was one of my mother's (Lois Denstaedt Moldenhauer) best friends. For many years Wilma and Fred had monthly gatherings with my parents and celebrated and grieved with our family. The gang is back together again. Blessings and peace to the family.
